(U) Citrus Heights – Deputies Seize Weapons Cache During Domestic Violence Arrest

(U) Deputies responding to a report of domestic violence in Sacramento County arrested a man who was also found to be in possession of a dozen firearms, three of those guns were reportedly stolen. As deputies arrived at the home, they spotted the man exiting the front door and walking toward a vehicle. The man — who was identified as Jesus Martin Gutierrez, 27, was initially uncooperative but was detained moments later without incident, the sheriff's office said. Deputies also located several extended magazines, high-capacity drums, and an illegal silencer inside of the vehicle.

(U) San Francisco – Alleged MS-13 Members Charged with Murder, Racketeering

(U) In a major update to an existing federal prosecution targeting MS-13, federal prosecutors in the Bay Area have tied two previously unsolved homicides to the Los Angeles-based gang. The indictment adds two new murder charges to a racketeering case that was filed in March 2020 targeting 17 alleged members and associates of MS-13. The new indictment charges alleged gang members with murdering a person referred to only by the initials "GA" in Bernal Heights in May 2017, and as well as murdering Gilberto Martin Jr. Rodriguez, 53, on the Pacifica shoreline in February 2018. Prosecutors allege that GA was an MS-13 member who violated gang rules and Rodriguez was identified as a rival gang member.

(U) Texas – Suspect in Congregation Beth Israel Arson Facing Federal Charges

(U) Austin – Franklin Barrett Sechriest, a member of the Texas National Guard and student at Texas State University in San Marcos, was arrested in the 31 October arson at Congregation Beth Israel. Sechriest is facing federal charges, and a newly unsealed criminal complaint includes racist and anti-Semitic entries from his personal journal. He wrote "scout a target" on 31 October, according to an affidavit filed by the FBI. His Jeep SUV was seen in the parking lot of the synagogue shortly before the fire is seen on security video. In the following days, he wrote in his journal "I set a synagogue on fire" and that he would become worried when authorities announced that they were hopeful they would find a suspect.

(U) Poland – Three Arrested in Connection to Antisemitic Demonstration

(U) Warsaw – Three people have been arrested in Poland in connection with an antisemitic demonstration last week where far-right participants shouted "Death to the Jews!," Interior Minister Mariusz Kaminski said. One of those arrested is Wojciech Olszanski, a far-right activist also known as Aleksander Jablonowski, who said on burning the copy of the Statute of Kalisz, the 13th-century document laying out Jewish rights: "We are abolishing Jewish rights in this land!" and "Death to the enemies of Poland!" The crowd responded with chants of "Death! Death! Death!"

(U) United Kingdom – Terror Threat Level Raised After Liverpool Taxi Blast

(U) London – British authorities raised the country's threat level to its second-highest rung, after police said a blast in a taxi outside a Liverpool hospital that killed one man and injured another was caused by a homemade bomb. Investigators said they were treating the explosion in Liverpool as a terrorist incident, but that the motive was unclear. The Joint Terrorism Analysis Centre raised the UK threat level from substantial — meaning an attack is likely — to severe, meaning it is highly likely, following the UK's second fatal incident in a month.
